CONSEQUENCES OF VIOLATIONS OF TROOP RULES:

IF AT ANY ONE TROOP MEETING, CAMPING TRIP, OR OTHER TROOP ACTIVITY YOU VIOLATE THESE RULES, HERE IS WHAT WILL HAPPEN:

#1 - 1st time -- The Scoutmaster or adult leader in charge and the SPL will meet with you, tell you what you did wrong, and give you a warning by saying, "This is your first warning."

#2 - 2nd time -- The Scoutmaster or adult leader in charge and the SPL will meet with you, tell you what you did wrong, and give you a warning by saying, "This is your second warning". After this second warning, you will be cut from the group and asked to spend ten minutes "cooling off".

#3 - 3rd time -- The Scoutmaster or adult leader in charge and the SPL will meet with you, tell you what you did wrong, and tell you, "This is your third and final warning." After this third warning, you will be cut from the group and asked to leave the meeting or camp. If you cannot leave the meeting because you are waiting for a ride, you will be kept away from the group until your ride arrives. If we are at camp, your parents will be called and asked to come and remove you from camp. In either case, your parents will be notified of your violations of Troop Rules. You will be welcome to come back to the next Troop meeting.

Continued problems with violations of the rules of the Troop can and will result in hearings before the Troop Committee and may result in suspension from all Troop activities for extended periods.

NOTE: Violation of rules marked (Major) will result in #3 immediately.
